AIRPORT SERVICE CHARGES

GREAT BRITAIN: An airport service charge of 5/- is payable by each passenger embarking from airports in Great Britain. Passengers in transit through Great Britain are exempt from this charge provided the stop-over does not exceed 48 hours. This charge may be prepaid at airline offices in Great Britain or paid at time of departure.

FRANCE: An airport service charge of F.Fr. 400 is payable by each passenger embarking at Paris for Dublin and Shannon. Transit passengers (i.e. passengers leaving France by the next connecting flight) are exempt from this charge. This charge will be collected at time of flight check-in.

Infants under two years of age are exempt from these charges.

AIRPORT COACH CHARGES

These fares are adult one-way fares and children under 12 years of age will be charged half fare.

*For fares effective from 7th October to 31st October inclusive, reference should be made to the Aer Lingus Summer 1956 Timetable, but, all excursion fares will be valid for travel everyday of the week from 7th October. Any Aer Lingus office or travel agent will be pleased to quote these fares on request.

REGULATIONS

GENERAL. All fares published in this timetable are TOURIST class fares, available for travel only on TOURIST class services, and are valid for 12 months except those specified as 17- or 23-day excursion fares. Passenger fares cover only carriage from AIRPORT to AIRPORT and a separate charge is made for passengers who use the coach service between city terminals and airports.

EXCURSION FARES. The Dublin/Shannon excursion fare may be combined with any onward fare. Excursion fares between Ireland and the United Kingdom may be combined with onward excursion fares from the United Kingdom. Each excursion fare may be sold only in the countries between which it is applicable except that any excursion fare saleable in the United Kingdom is also saleable in Ireland and v.v.

CHILDREN'S AND INFANTS' FARES. Children two years of age and under twelve will be charged half the adult fare. One infant under two years of age accompanied by an adult will be charged 10% of the adult fare, and each additional infant will be charged half the adult fare. Ages as at commencement of journey.

BAGGAGE. For travel exclusively on the services shown in this timetable the free baggage allowance for adults and children two years of age and over is 20 kg. (44 lb.) There is no free baggage allowance for infants travelling at 10 per cent. of the adult fare.

STUDENT AND STUDENT NURSES' FARES. Special discounts on round trip fares are available to school children and students for travel between their homes and the educational establishments at which they are attending a full-time course. Special discounts on round-trip fares between Ireland and United Kingdom are available to student nurses travelling between their homes and their training establishments. Applicants must be under 26 years of age and must submit a completed Students' Fare Certificate before the discount can be granted. Student Fare Certificates may be obtained from Aer Lingus or any travel agent.

All Fares, Rates, Charges and Regulations are Subject to Alteration without Notice.

PASSENGER INFORMATION

CONDITIONS OF CARRIAGE AND REGULATIONS

Carriage of Passengers and Baggage and of Cargo is performed in accordance with Aer Lingus General Conditions of Carriage and Regulations, which are available for inspection at all terminals and booking offices of the Company. Official abbreviations for Carriers' names will be shown in the routing column of the passenger ticket, and a complete list of these abbreviations is published in Aer Lingus Regulations.

AIRCRAFT TYPE.—All scheduled services to London, and Amsterdam are normally operated by Viscount aircraft. From time to time, especially in the case of extra sections, other aircraft types may have to be substituted in order to maintain the schedule.

BAGGAGE. (a) Free Allowance : The free allowance for adults and children paying half fare is :

Where the TOURIST Class Fare is paid—20 Kilograms (44 lbs.)

Where the FIRST Class Fare is paid—30 Kilograms (66 lbs.) Where the fare paid is a combination of FIRST Class and TOURIST Class Fares, the passenger will get the FIRST Class free allowance on sectors for which the FIRST Class Fare is paid and the TOURIST Class free allowance on sectors for which the TOURIST Class Fare is paid.

(b) Personal Items : In addition to the free allowance the following items may be carried free of charge :

A lady's handbag or pocketbook ; an overcoat or wrap ; a foot rug ; an umbrella or walking stick ; a pair of binoculars ; a small camera ; a reasonable amount of reading matter for the flight ; infant's food for consumption en route and infant's carrying basket ; fully collapsible invalids' wheel chairs.

Other articles such as brief cases, typewriters, heavy cameras, overnight bags, parcels, or similar articles will be weighed and included in the total baggage weight.

(c) Excess : Subject to space being available baggage in excess of the free allowance may be carried at the rates shown in this Timetable.

(d) Prohibited Articles : Acids, matches, lighter fluid and other articles which ignite easily must not be carried in baggage.

(e) Commercial Samples : Baggage should contain personal effects only, but samples may be carried provided Customs regulations are complied with.

(f) Cycles, Tandems, Auto Cycles, Motor Scooters and Motor Cycles. By advance special arrangements and subject to space being available, on payment of a separate charge any one of the above items may be carried as baggage. Details of charges on application.

BOOKINGS. Seats should be booked as far in advance as possible, and where possible, seats for onward and return travel should be booked at the same time. It is advisable to confirm onward and return bookings at each stop-over point and on arrival at destination.

CANCELLATION OF RESERVATIONS. When it is necessary to cancel reservations it is requested that as much notice as possible be given to Aer Lingus so that the cancelled seat can be offered for re-sale. Early cancellation avoids the risk of incurring no-show penalties and facilitates some other passenger who may otherwise be unable to obtain a seat.

CHECK-IN TIMES. It is necessary to be at the city air terminus or airport check-in counter not later than the check-in time shown herein for the flight on which a reservation is held, and late arrivals cannot be accepted for travel on that flight. A no-show charge will have to be paid in such cases.

CHILDREN AND INFANTS. Unaccompanied children under eight years of age will be carried only by advance special arrangement. Unaccompanied children under twelve years of age must be brought to the airport and met on arrival by an adult.

Children's and Infants' Fares. Children between the ages of two and twelve years will be charged half the adult fare. One infant under two years of age accompanied by an adult will be charged 10 per cent. of the adult fare and each additional infant will be charged half the adult fare. Ages as at commencement of journey.

COMMON INTEREST GROUP TRAVEL. A reduction will be granted to bona-fide common interest groups making the same journey, who travel together in the same aircraft, as follows :—

(a) Groups of 10 or more, but less than 15 adults—5% discount per passenger.

(b) Groups of 15 or more adults—10% discount per passenger. These discounts do not apply for student fares.

EASY-PAYMENT PLAN. Details of the Air Travel Easy-Payment Plan are available from travel agents or any Aer Lingus Booking Office The Easy-Payment Travel Plan is available for all journeys or inclusive tours where the total cost amounts to £20 or more. Deposit 10% (minimum £2 10s.). Repayment period : Six to twenty-one months according to the fare.

GARAGE FACILITIES. Arrangements may be made for the garaging and servicing of cars at Dublin Airport by the Airport Authorities.

GOVERNMENT REQUIREMENTS FOR FOREIGN TRAVEL. Aer Lingus or its Agents will be pleased to provide all available information to assist in the planning of a journey, but passengers must personally ensure that they comply with all passport, visa, health, currency, immigration or other government regulations. Aer Lingus cannot accept responsibility for any inconvenience caused as a result of any irregularity in these matters. Travel documents are required during your journey and should not therefore be packed in baggage.

GRATUITIES. Aer Lingus staff are not permitted to accept tips.

INSURANCE. Aer Lingus will arrange personal accident or baggage insurance if required.

LIVE ANIMALS. Live animals cannot be carried in the passenger cabin but, by special arrangement, they may be carried in the freight holds.

NO-SHOW CHARGES. A no-show charge of 25% of the one-way fare or £2, whichever is higher, will be made for failure to check-in for a service on which a reservation is held unless Aer Lingus has received prior notice of cancellation.

PUNCTUALITY. Every effort is made to ensure the punctuality of Aer Lingus flights. However, Aer Lingus cannot guarantee that departures or arrivals will be made at the exact times stated in the Timetable, or that connections with other services will be made, nor can Aer Lingus accept responsibility for the consequences of a delay to, or cancellation of any flight. In the event of a service being cancelled every effort will be made to accommodate passengers on another flight, or, if requested, a refund of the unused value of the ticket will be made.

REFRESHMENTS. Light refreshments are served free of charge on many routes. There is an excellent restaurant at Dublin Airport and good buffet and restaurant facilities at most other Airports. Drinks, cigarettes and chocolates may be purchased on Aer Lingus flights.

REFUNDS. Application for refund on an unused ticket should be made to the travel agent from whom the ticket was purchased or to any Aer Lingus Booking Office, not later than 30 days after the expiry date of the ticket. The refund on the return portion of a round-trip or excursion ticket will be the difference between the fare paid and the applicable one-way fare.

SEAT BELTS. Passengers are requested to fasten their seat belts for take-off and landing, whenever the " Fasten Seat Belt " notice is displayed, and at the request of the hostess.

SMOKING. Cigarette smoking is permitted during flight but no smoking is allowed during take-off and landing, whenever the " No Smoking " notice is displayed, and when the hostess requests passengers to refrain from smoking. Smoking of pipes and cigars is not permitted.

STOPOVERS. Provided notice is given at time of booking, passengers may break their journey at scheduled stopping places en route without losing the benefit of the through fare.

TAXES. Taxes levied by governments or by local authorities are not included in the fares.

UNIVERSAL AIR TRAVEL PLAN. Aer Lingus will be pleased to honour Travel Cards when presented at any Aer Lingus Booking Office.

Aer Lingus is a member of the International Air Transport Association (IATA) and all sales are subject to the Regulations and Conditions laid down by this Association.

It's easy to take it easy in Ireland

If your everyday world's a busy one, get away from it all to Ireland. You'll delight in a wide variety of sport and scenery, a carefree holiday atmosphere and the spontaneous hospitality of a friendly people. You'll find rest and peace and unspoiled, natural loveliness, where the romantic past rubs shoulders with the picturesque present. Everything's so casual, so unhurried, so refreshingly informal. And a quick easy journey by air will bring you to Ireland, where it's wonderfully easy to take it easy.
