SHADOW OF SIBERIA

1st DAY—DEPART FOR KOTZEBUE—FLY BY SIBERIA—OVERNIGHT NOME. Your Golden Nugget Jet takes you from Anchorage to Kotzebue. Mt. McKinley and the mighty Yukon River are normally visable en route. You receive a personalized certificate to commemorate your crossing of the Arctic Circle. At Kotzebue you are in the land of permafrost and tundra. You may see catches of whale, seal and walrus on the beach. Dog teams, sleds, kayaks and oomiaks are just a few of the facets of Eskimo culture displayed for you to photograph.

The time has come to leave for Nome, summer home of the famed King Island Eskimos and Gold Rush Capital of the Arctic. Your flight ventures to the farthest tip of land on the continent, Cape Prince of Wales. You are now in the SHADOW OF SIBERIA. You have reached the end of all time zones of the world, the International Date Line. At this point you look down on both today and tomorrow. You view the single point on the globe where East meets West: the dividing point between two continents, two oceans and two days. Weather permitting, you can easily see Siberia. Below you can see Big Diomede belonging to Russia and Little Diomede to America, separated by less than three miles. Only on Alaska Airlines, using the Anchorage gateway to the Arctic, do you experience the exclusive SHADOW OF SIBERIA side trip. At Nome you are met and transferred to your comfortable modern hotel. After dinner, the King Island Eskimos stage a blanket toss in your honor, then entertain you with the chants and rhythmic beat of the primitive Eskimo dances. You witness ivory carving, skin sewing and enjoy warm-hearted Eskimo hospitality.

2nd DAY—CITY OF GOLD TOUR RETURN ANCHORAGE. Today you ride both a skin boat and a real dog sled, you witness a Kayak demonstration and have an irresistible opportunity to shop for unusual souvenirs. An historical tour helps you relive the gaudy, glamorous days of the Gold Rush. You meet a real pioneer gold mining family. With them you pan for gold in the rich "pay dirt" of Basin Creek. Each visitor takes with him a sample of the precious metal and much admiration for these hardy Alaskans. These memories and many, many more, reward you as you board your Golden Nugget return flight for Anchorage, or beyond.
