Ship by General Air Express
THE INTERLINE SYSTEM

Eastern Air Transport is a unit of GENERAL AIR EXPRESS, "The Interline System," which links one hundred and thirty-five cities in a high-speed package delivery service.

This nation-wide system provides the ideal means of despatching packages, weighing from one to two hundred pounds, with the minimum of time in transit—overnight service between cities a thousand miles apart.

Rates are low—service is from door to door. Postal Telegraph messengers make special pick-up and immediate delivery, without additional charge.

For information and rates, phone any Eastern Air Transport office, or

CALL POSTAL TELEGRAPH

Typical low rates:

Between	Miles	Air Time	Rate FIVE Pounds
New York and Washington	200	2 hrs.	$1.25

Eastern Air Has Purchased Ludington Airlines

Having in February, 1933 acquired name and assets widely known under the slogan "Every Hour on the Hour," the Ludington Line has now been fully integrated with the extensive operations of Eastern Air Transport. This folder therefore consolidates all schedules and contains complete information.

H. A. Elliott, Vice President and General Manager.

IT'S SPRINGTIME IN DIXIE!

Sea Island . . . Savannah . . . Charleston . . . Augusta . . . Camden . . . Aiken . . . Pinehurst . . . Asheville . . . magic names for spring sports and recreation. Eastern Air Transport offers travel schedules to these famous resorts that permit week-end visits without loss of business time.

BOTH AMERICAS BY AIR!

Leading cities of North and South America are now days or weeks closer together, via connecting services of Eastern Air Transport and Pan American Airways. Through tickets and bookings may be purchased to any destination. Rates, schedules and full information on request.

*Newark Airport—bus to Governor Clinton Hotel in New York City at an additional charge of 75c.

Ground transportation available at all airports at additional charge of 10c. to $1.00.

All tickets good for ninety days. Stop-overs allowed.

NOTE—New rate between New York and Atlantic City $6.00 one way; $11.00 round-trip. All other one-way rates to and from Atlantic City $1.50 less than shown on tariff and round-trip rates $3.00 less than shown on tariff.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Reservations.—Must be made and accepted in advance. The return portions of round-trip tickets will not be honored for passage unless reservation has been made.

Tickets.—Good for ninety days from date of issue. On sale at all company offices, leading hotels and travel bureaus, at all Postal Telegraph offices and Western Union offices without extra cost. See "For Information and Reservations."

Children.—Children in arms under two years of age will be carried free. All others at regular fare.

Ground Transportation.—Fares do not include ground transportation to and from airports, which is available at all stations at reasonable cost. See "Ground Transportation."

Animals.—No animals, birds or reptiles may be transported in passenger planes.

Baggage.—Thirty pounds of baggage per passenger carried free. Excess if plane load allows, charged for at approximately ½ of 1 per cent of the full passenger tariff. Not more than 50 pounds of baggage per passenger will be carried. Eastern Air Transport representatives will gladly handle all details of shipment of trunks or heavy baggage by express or freight, as an accommodation to passengers.

Stop-overs.—Permitted on all tickets. Passenger assumes responsibility for securing reservation to resume journey. Passage between immediately adjacent stations subject to space available at time of plane departure.

Cancellations—By Company.—The Company reserves the right to cancel bookings before passage or en route whenever such action is deemed advisable or necessary. In all events, the passenger's sole recourse shall be recovery of the unused portion of the air fare.

Cancellations—By Passenger.—To secure refund, ticket must be surrendered to Company office three hours before scheduled plane departure; when departure is scheduled before 10:00 A.M., cancellation must be made before 6:00 P.M. the previous day. Refunds will not be made except under these conditions.

Schedules and Fares.—Subject to change without notice.

Connections.—Every effort will be made to make connections shown, but the Company will be in no way liable for failure to do so.

Inter-Line Tickets.—Company representatives will secure reservations to all points reached by other airlines.

Air Mail Service.—The majority of the passenger planes of Eastern Air Transport carry U. S. Air Mail. Night flying with air mail exclusively is carried on by a fleet of swift ships built especially for that service, and a notable record of efficiency has been established in this field of air transport.

Air Express.—A fast and economical package delivery service is provided by GENERAL AIR EXPRESS—"The Inter-line System." For information and rates call Postal Telegraph or any Eastern Air Transport office.
