SERVING 91 CITIES IN 33 COUNTRIES

SABENA was founded nearly 33 years ago, making it one of the oldest international air transport systems in the world.

SABENA goes to 91 cities in 33 countries. North America, all Europe, Africa and the Near East are linked by its great network, which brings New York only 14 hours from Brussels, and enables a traveler from Bermuda to reach Johannesburg in South Africa in 24 hours.

SABENA puts Brussels 1 hour, 10 minutes from London, and 3 hours from Rome, and brings all other important European cities within correspondingly short flying time.

In the Belgian Congo, SABENA has the largest air network in Africa.
