More Than 1800 Travel Agencies and 1500 Airline Offices AT YOUR SERVICE

FOR RESERVATIONS — INFORMATION — TICKETS

EASY — CONVENIENT — TO PLAN YOUR TRIP BY AIR

All passenger travel on airlines is arranged by making an advance reservation for your flight.

Air travel reservations — going and returning — are easily and quickly made, at no extra cost, through any scheduled airline ticket office. See your Classified Telephone Directory and phone any of the airlines listed — the airline representative will give you complete information on time of flights — fares — tickets — and route you over the most advantageous airlines to your destination in the United States or abroad. If you prefer call in person at any airline office, the airline representative will be glad to plan your flight with you.

Reservations and information on air travel are available through more than 1800 travel agencies and 1500 airline offices located in the principal cities of the United States.

TO GET THE MOST FROM YOUR TRIP — SEE YOUR TRAVEL AGENT

Let your travel agent plan your trip. His services involve no extra cost and will save you time and effort. He will help you plan your itinerary and make all necessary reservations. Many individuals and organizations rely on their travel agent for all their needs in domestic and foreign transportation. Your travel agent can be very helpful, particularly on international trips or travel overseas — providing complete and detailed information on countries abroad, passports, visas, customs procedures, hotel reservations — advice on places to visit, resorts, money, climate, clothing to take along. Your travel agent is an expert on travel — it pays to see him first.
