NEW TCA SERVICES TO THE HEART OF EUROPE

DIRECT FLIGHTS TO BRUSSELS, ZURICH

and new non-stop service to Paris

Now fly by TCA long-range Super-G Constellation direct to Brussels, Belgium's International Fair City, and to Zurich, Switzerland, centre of one of Europe's most attractive vacation areas. Both destinations are key centres in Europe's air network, offer quick connections to anywhere in central Europe. This year, TCA also inaugurated new flights from Montreal to Paris, non-stop. Other direct flights serve London, Glasgow, Shannon and Dusseldorf.

BAGGAGE AND PERSONAL PROPERTY—Allowances—(for each full and half fare paid)—will be carried free up to a maximum of forty (40) pounds on North American services for transportation solely within Canada and the continental United States; forty-four (44) pounds on North American Tourist services in conjunction with extraterritorial travel by air, and over Atlantic and Southern Tourist services; sixty-six (66) pounds on North American First Class services in conjunction with extraterritorial travel by air (44 lbs. when first class service is permitted at a through Tourist fare), and over Atlantic and Southern First Class Services. Baggage in excess of the free allowance weights described above may be carried on payment of the excess baggage charges. Excess baggage charges are based on ½ of 1% of the FULL FIRST CLASS ADULT ONE WAY FARE per pound of excess weight for transportation solely within Canada and Continental U.S.A. On extraterritorial travel by air, including Atlantic and Southern Services, the charges are based on 1% of the FULL FIRST CLASS ADULT ONE WAY FARE per kilo of excess weight.

Liability—of TCA for loss of, or damage to, or any delay in the delivery of personal property, including baggage, is limited to the amount of Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($250.00) per passenger*, unless a higher valuation is declared and an additional charge paid in advance of flight.

(*Not applicable to transportation which is "International Transportation" as defined by the Warsaw Convention.)

Contents—shall consist only of wearing apparel, non-liquid toilet articles and similar effects necessary and appropriate for the use of the passenger for the purposes of the journey and not intended for other persons or for sale. Any liquids, money, jewelry, silverware, samples, negotiable paper, securities, and similar valuables or business documents will not be carried, except on the understanding that the Carrier shall not be liable for loss, damage, or delay of such articles or for the damage to other property caused thereby. Assembled firearms, explosives, corrosives, radioactive material, matches, and other articles which may be easily ignited will not be carried.

In Cabin—Passengers may carry brief cases, portable typewriters, baby kits (except bassinets) and similar articles in the cabin, but these articles must be weighed as baggage and be included in the total weight. Ladies' handbags and pocketbooks, overcoats and wraps, foot rugs, umbrellas, and walking sticks, small cameras, binoculars and a reasonable amount of reading material may be carried in the cabin.

TARIFFS—All information published herein is subject to official tariff Rules and to change without notice. Unless otherwise specified, fares are for transportation only between airports serving the cities named on tickets and as published in current passenger tariffs. Current tariffs are maintained in all ticket offices of the Company, for public inspection.

CARRIAGE OF UNACCOMPANIED CHILDREN—Children under five (5) years of age—not accepted unless accompanied by a passenger at least 12 years of age or over. Children five (5), six (6), and seven (7) years of age—will be accepted, but must be accompanied to the Airport of departure by a responsible adult and assurance must be given to TCA by such parent or responsible adult, that the child will be met at the destination Airport by another parent or responsible adult. Children eight (8) years of age or over—no restriction. TCA reserves the right to restrict the number of children under twelve years of age to be transported on any one flight.

INFANTS—At time of booking reservations, advice is required by the Company of infants to be carried by passengers.

CUSTOMS INFORMATION

The Company believes the information contained herein to be correct at the time it was obtained but does not guarantee its correctness in any way.

RESIDENTS OF CANADA—RE-ENTERING CANADA

Canadian residents returning to Canada after an absence of at least forty-eight hours may bring with them duty and tax free merchandise up to $100.00 in value (Canadian funds) as gifts or for personal use, provided that the individual has not been granted an exemption during the preceding four months' period. Merchandise eligible for free entry must accompany the traveller as personal baggage in order to qualify and must be of the type which would be carried as baggage by Canadian transportation companies. In case of doubt, due enquiry should be made in advance at any Canadian Customs office and, in any event, each exemption is restricted to a maximum of:

200 cigarettes 50 cigars 2 lbs. tobacco 1 bottle liquor (40 oz. or less)

NON-RESIDENTS OF CANADA—ENTERING CANADA

Non-residents of Canada may bring with them in their baggage without payment of duties and taxes wearing apparel, articles of personal adornment, toilet articles and similar items necessary and appropriate for the wear or use of the passenger during the time he or she remains in Canada. Each passenger, however, is restricted to the free admission of not more than:

200 cigarettes 50 cigars 2 lbs. tobacco 1 bottle liquor (40 oz. or less) and duty and taxes will be collected on any excess over these amounts.

RESIDENTS OF U.S.A.—RE-ENTERING U.S.A.

Provided they have been outside the U.S.A. forty-eight hours, returning residents are permitted to bring in $200.00 worth of merchandise or gifts for personal use, duty free, once every thirty-one days. U.S. residents who have been abroad at least twelve days are allowed an additional exemption of $300.00 once every six months.
