This is NORDAIR

Nordair is one of Canada's five regional airlines. It has its headquarters and main base of operations in Montreal and employs approximately 850 people in Quebec, Ontario, the Northwest Territories, USA and Europe. It is a 30-year-old publicly owned company with its shares listed on the Toronto and Montreal stock exchanges.

The Nordair fleet comprises six Boeing 737 jets, one stretched DC-8 and five turbo prop aircraft.

Nordair provides scheduled jet air service between Montreal and points in Southern Ontario, Pittsburgh, Penn., Western and Northern Quebec and the Arctic as far north as Resolute Bay, in accordance with this timetable.

Nordair is the most diversified of the regional airlines. It operates Inclusive Tour Charter flights (ITCs) to many southern destinations in the United States, the Caribbean and Mexico and, during the summer tourist season, Advance Booking Charters (ABCs), to cities in seven European countries. Treasure Tours, a subsidiary company acquired in 1975, has offices in Montreal and Toronto and has been in the inclusive tour leisure market business for more than 50 years. Treasure Tours charters Nordair aircraft as well as those of other Canadian carriers.

Nordair also operates ice reconnaissance flights in the Arctic during the summer months and over the Gulf of St. Lawrence and the Atlantic Ocean in winter, for Environment Canada. In addition, the company operates lateral resupply flights for the DEWline, making stops twice a week at each of 22 stations in the Arctic from Alaska to the eastern tip of Baffin Island.

Voici NORDAIR

Nordair est l'une des cinq compagnies aériennes régionales du Canada. Son siège social et son centre d'opérations sont à Montréal. La compagnie emploie environ 850 personnes au Québec, en Ontario, dans les Territoires du Nord-Ouest, aux Etats-Unis et en Europe. Etablie depuis 30 ans, Nordair est une compagnie publique dont les actions sont cotées aux bourses de Toronto et Montréal.

Sa flotte comprend six Boeing 737, un DC-8 allongé et cinq avions turbo-propulsés.

Nordair offre, suivant cet horaire, des vols réguliers en jet de Montréal vers les villes du sud de l'Ontario, Pittsburgh en Pennsylvanie, l'ouest et le nord du Québec, ainsi que vers l'Arctique jusqu'à Resolute Bay.

Nordair est la compagnie aérienne régionale dont les activités sont les plus diversifiées: elle offre notamment des voyages nolisés tout compris (ITC) vers un grand nombre de villes du sud des Etats-Unis, les Caraïbes, le Mexique et, pendant les mois d'été, des vols nolisés à réservation anticipée (ABC) vers sept pays européens. Treasure Tours, une filiale de Nordair acquise en 1975, a des bureaux à Montréal et Toronto et organise des voyages de vacances tout compris depuis plus de 50 ans. Treasure Tours affrète des avions de Nordair ainsi que d'autres transporteurs canadiens.

Nordair effectue également pour Environnement Canada des vols de reconnaissance des glaces dans l'Arctique pendant l'été, et au-dessus du golfe Saint-Laurent et de l'océan Atlantique pendant l'hiver. De plus, ses avions assurent le ravitaillement de la ligne de défense DEW, dans l'Arctique, depuis l'Alaska jusqu'à l'extrémité est de la Terre de Baffin, faisant escale deux fois par semaine à chacun de ses 22 postes.
