How to read this Timetable

Select your flight. Flight numbers are shown vertically from the top of the table down in order of departure. Read across from the flight number to check flight timings (paying particular attention to check-in times), and continue to read across to check that the selected flight operates on the day and date you require. The days of operation for each flight are set out on the same horizontal line as the flight timings, a separate column being provided for each month or period.

All times shown are local times

VALIDITY OF TICKETS

NORMAL ONE-WAY AND ROUND-TRIP FARES. Tickets issued at normal one-way fare are valid for twelve months and tickets issued at normal round-trip, circle-trip and open-jaw trip fares are valid for six months from date of commencement of outward journey.

SPECIAL MID-WEEK RETURN FARES. Tickets issued at special mid-week return fares are available for travel in either direction on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays only. The return journey must be completed within 17 days, including the day of outward travel.

SPECIAL SUMMER RETURN FARES. Tickets issued at special summer return fare are available for travel in either direction on any day of the week. The return journey must be completed within 17 days, including the day of outward travel.

DISCOUNTS

CIRCLE-TRIP AND OPEN-JAW TRIP DISCOUNTS. Special discounts are granted on circle-trip and open-jaw trip routings. Full particulars on application.

COMMON INTEREST GROUP TRAVEL. For journeys within Europe, a reduction of 10% per ticket will be granted on all normal one-way round, circle and open-jaw trip fares, and on Aer Lingus special mid-week and special summer return fares, for parties of 15 or more adults making the same journey, who travel together in the same aircraft as a bona-fide group. To obtain this facility it will be necessary to apply in writing at least 7 days before date of outward travel.

TOUR CONDUCTORS. Conductors of advertised group tours will be granted one free ticket for 15 or more fully paid adult passengers and one ticket at 50% discount for not less than 10 nor more than 14 fully paid adult passengers. These facilities are granted for round, circle or open-jaw trip travel only and provided that all members of the tour travel in the same aircraft. Application for this facility must be made in writing at least 7 days before date of outward travel.

SPECIAL STUDENT RETURN FARES. These fares are available for travel between home and school, college or university, to students who have reached their twelfth but not their twenty-second birthday. All applications must be supported by a completed student fare certificate obtainable at any Aer Lingus office or your travel Agent.

CYCLE AND PRAM RATES

Accompanied pedal cycles and folding prams will be charged for at the flat rates set out above irrespective of weight. On routes for which no special rates are quoted, accompanied pedal cycles and folding prams will be weighed and the total weight will be charged for at the normal freight rate. The ability of the Company to carry pedal cycles or folding prams is governed by the space available on the aircraft.

FREIGHT

A quantity discount of 25% will apply on all consignments of 45 kgs. (100 lbs.) or over.

NOTE: ALL FARES, RATES AND DISCOUNTS AVAILABLE ON AER LINGUS SERVICES ARE SUBJECT TO THE REGULATIONS OF THE INTERNATIONAL AIR TRANSPORT ASSOCIATION.

PASSENGER INFORMATION AND REGULATIONS

AIR TRAVEL CARDS. Travel cards issued under the Universal Air Travel Plan will be honoured at all Aer Lingus offices.

ANIMALS cannot be accepted for carriage in passenger cabins but may, by special arrangement, be carried in the freight holds of the aircraft on most services.

ASSEMBLY. PASSENGER CHECK-IN TIMES. To complete all essential documentation and clearance formalities, passengers must check-in at City Terminals or Airports not later than the published check-in times.

BAGGAGE. (a) Free Baggage Allowance. For adults and for children paying half-fare, the free allowance is :

(i) 20 Kilograms (44 lbs.) for journeys on Aer Lingus services and for through journeys within Europe where the normal adult one-way fare is less than £50.

(ii) 30 Kilograms (66 lbs.) for through journeys within Europe where the normal adult one-way fare is £50 or over and for inter-continental journeys.

In addition, the following articles may be carried free :
Lady's handbag; overcoat, wrap or rug; small camera; binoculars; umbrella or walking stick; a reasonable amount of reading matter for the flight.
Brief cases, typewriters, heavy cameras or similar articles and parcels will be weighed and the weight included in the baggage allowance.

(b) Infants. There is no free baggage allowance for infants under two years who pay 10% of the full fare, but a carry-cot and infant's food for consumption en route may be carried free.

(c) Excess Baggage Rates. Baggage in excess of the free allowance will be charged for at the rates published in this timetable.

(d) Commercial Samples. Commercial travellers may include samples in their free baggage allowance. Where samples are carried as baggage, the passenger must be in possession of three copies of an itemised invoice or packing note showing separate values for the samples carried.

(e) Commercial Merchandise which it is intended to import and which is not for re-exportation is liable to Customs fine if carried as baggage.

CANCELLATIONS AND REFUNDS. (a) Cancellation Dead-lines. Where a reservation is cancelled, the fare will be refunded, provided that notice of cancellation is received at least 48 hours before flight departure, where the normal adult one-way fare is less than £25, or 72 hours before flight departure where the normal adult one-way fare is £25 or over.

(b) Late Cancellations. A passenger who cancels after the applicable cancellation dead-line will forfeit the applicable one-way fare where the normal adult one-way fare is less than £25; or £25, or 25% of the applicable one-way fare, whichever is greater, where the normal adult one-way fare is £25 or over, unless the seat has been resold or where, apart from the cancelled seat, space on the flight has not been fully sold at the time of departure.

(c) No-Shows. A passenger who fails to join a service on which he holds a reservation or who fails to comply with passport, currency, health or other Government regulations, or regulations of Carrier, and is thereby prevented from travelling, will forfeit the applicable one-way fare where the normal adult one-way fare is less than £25; or £25, or 25% of the applicable one-way fare, whichever is greater, where the normal adult one-way fare is £25 or over.

(d) Late Cancellation Fee. In all cases where notice of cancellation is received after the applicable dead-line and where refund is subsequently made, a late cancellation fee of 5/- will be charged.

(e) Special Rule for Trans-Atlantic and Trans-Pacific Journeys. Where an Aer Lingus sector forms part of a Trans-Atlantic or Trans-Pacific journey :

(i) a passenger who fails to join the Aer Lingus service on which he holds a reservation or who is prevented from travelling through failure to comply with governmental regulations or regulations of Carrier, will be assessed a service charge of 25% of the applicable one-way fare;

(ii) a passenger who gives notice of cancellation of his reservation to Aer Lingus before the published check-in time for his flight will be refunded the fare, provided that, where notice of cancellation is received less than 72 hours before flight departure, a late cancellation fee of 5/- will be charged.

(f) Cancelled Flights. In the event of a flight being cancelled or interrupted, Carrier is liable, in accordance with Aer Lingus General Conditions of Carriage, only for refund of the fare or unused portion thereof.

(g) Lost Tickets. Aer Lingus reserves the right to refuse refund to passengers in respect of lost tickets or of any fares charged in consequence of passengers' failure to produce tickets when required.

(h) Time-limit for Application for Refund. Applications for refund must be made not later than 30 days after the expiry date of the ticket. They should be made through the issuing Agent or any Aer Lingus booking office.

CHILDREN AND INFANTS. Unaccompanied children under eight years of age will be carried only by advance special arrangement. Unaccompanied children between eight and twelve years of age must be accompanied to the airport by an adult and met on arrival by an adult.

Children's and Infants' Fares. Children two years of age and under twelve will be charged half the adult fare. One infant under two years of age accompanying a passenger paying the adult fare will be charged 10% of the adult fare. Each additional infant under two years of age accompanying the same passenger will be charged half the adult fare. Children's and infants' ages will be ages at commencement of journey.

CONDITIONS OF CARRIAGE. Carriage of passengers and baggage and of cargo is performed in accordance with Aer Lingus General Conditions of Carriage, which are available for inspection at all terminals and booking offices of the Company.

CURRENCY RESTRICTIONS. Passengers are strongly recommended to keep themselves informed of the latest regulations concerning this subject by consulting their bankers well in advance of the date of travel.

FARES AND RATES. Fares and rates are subject to alteration without notice. Air fares do not include the cost of coach transportation to and from Dublin and Shannon Airports. Coach transporation at most other airports is included in the air fare.

FREIGHT. Freight will be accepted on Aer Lingus services at the rates shown in this timetable. For large and regular consignments, special rates will be quoted on request.

GARAGE FACILITIES. Storage for passengers' cars is provided by the Dublin Airport Management at fixed charges.

GRATUITIES. Aer Lingus staff neither expect nor are they permitted to accept gratuities.

INSURANCE. Personal accident, baggage and freight insurance may be effected if required. Particulars are available from Aer Lingus Traffic Offices on request.

INTERCHANGE FACILITIES. Air tickets may be exchanged for rail and/or steamer tickets (or vice versa) between certain stations in England and Ireland. Details available from travel agents or Company's Booking Offices on request.

PASSPORTS, VISAS, CERTIFICATES OF HEALTH. Passengers must be in possession of all documents required by the regulations of the countries from, into, or over which they intend to fly. Aer Lingus accepts no responsibility for inconvenience or loss suffered by passengers who fail to comply with applicable regulations.

Travel documents must be carried by passengers and not packed in their baggage.

RESERVATIONS. Passengers are advised to make reservations as far in advance of date of travel as possible. All reservations are provisional until the full fare is paid. There are no booking fees, but the cost of any special telephone or telegram service will be borne by the passenger.

ROUND-TRIP AND SPECIAL RETURN TICKETS. To secure the reduction for round-trip or special return tickets, passengers must pay the round-trip or special return fare, before commencement of journey. If a passenger is unable to use the return half of his ticket, the difference between the round trip or special return fare paid and the normal one-way fare will be refunded provided that the cancellation regulations have been observed. Passengers are advised to make return reservations before commencing their outward journey and to check return reservations effected at the place of departure on arrival at destination. A round-trip or special return ticket does not entitle the holder to any priority in obtaining reservations.

SCHEDULES. Departures, arrivals or connections at the times stated in the timetable are not guaranteed and are subject to change without notice.

Aer Lingus reserves the right to cancel any flight whenever such action is considered advisable.

SAFETY BELTS must be fastened during take-off and landing, at any time when notice to that effect is displayed in the aircraft, or on the instructions of the aircraft Captain.

SMOKING. Cigarettes may be smoked during flight, but the smoking of pipes and cigars is prohibited. No smoking is allowed during take-off or landing, at any time when "no smoking" notice is displayed in the aircraft, or on the instructions of the aircraft Captain.

STOPOVERS. Stopovers will be permitted at scheduled stopping places if arranged in advance and specified on the ticket.

Watch your Freight problems FLY away

Time is all-important in these highly competitive days—every minute saved in the transport of your goods is vital. As well as speed in transport, there are the following important advantages of the Aer Lingus Air Freight System.

- ★ Frequent services eliminate the necessity of keeping large stocks and thus reduce warehousing costs.
- ★ Only the lightest wrapping is required.
- ★ There is little handling, thus reducing the chance of breakages.
- ★ There is an efficient collection and delivery service from Air Terminals.
- ★ Arrangements are made for transport of goods to any part of the world.
- ★ Special reduced rates for consignments weighing more than 100 lbs.

ASK THE EXPERIENCED BUSINESSMAN

Ask for a copy of our booklet issued for your guidance. Further details may be obtained from any of our offices or from your Air Freight Agents.

FREIGHTER SERVICES

In addition to these special services, freight is carried on all scheduled passenger services

The Viscount Flies into a Great Future

THE VISCOUNT 700 proves at every stage to be worthy of its distinguished forbears. Its brilliant performance, safety and comfort were fully proved right from the first take-off. Next it acquired the Normal Certificate of Airworthiness to I.C.A.O. standards. Now, the Viscount goes into operation for the world's airlines.
