Passengers travelling on AirMalta flights - particularly to Cairo and Tripoli - are reminded that check-in time at Luqa Airport for all services is one hour prior to scheduled time of departure.

Reconfirmation

If you break your journey for more than 72 hours at any point, please reconfirm your intention of using your continuing or return reservation. To do so, please inform the nearest office of the airline, on whose services you hold a reservation, at least 72 hours prior to departure of your flight.
Failure to reconfirm entitles the airline to resell your seat.

AirMalta thanks you for your cooperation.

Principal Events in Malta and Gozo

March 30 - 31 - Malta's National Day celebrates the departure of all armed foreign forces from the Island and the attainment of full freedom in peace on the 31st March 1979. Celebrated as the most important event on the cultural calendar, the programme includes outstanding outdoor and indoor popular theatre performances, parades, land and water sports, official ceremonies and colourful fireworks.

March 28 - Good Friday: Processions are held in the afternoon in 14 towns and villages. Life-size statues are carried in procession, with participants dressed in costumes depicting episodes from the Old and New Testaments.

March 30 - Easter Sunday : Morning processions with statues of the Risen Christ are held in five towns and villages. The statue, accompanied by a brass band, is carried shoulder-high by youths at a run in a festive atmosphere.

March 29 - April 9 - Mużikafest: Participants in this festival give performances in various environments. Organised by NSTS - Student and Youth Travel, Mużikafest also offers an insight into the Maltese way of life.

April 1-5 - International Archery Tournament: Scores of participants from Eastern and Western European countries attend this event.

May 1 - Labour Day is celebrated in Malta as a public holiday, and is marked with parades and other manifestations in the capital Valletta.

May 3 - Sicily-Malta Windsurf Race A number of the most renowned international windsurfers take part in this 93 km race from Pozzallo in the Sicilian province of Ragusa to Valletta, Malta. The major prizes for this race are US$1,660 for the winner, US$1,040 for the runner up and US $620 for the third placed.

May 9-11 - The three-day Carnival festivities, held mainly in and around Valletta, date back to as far as 1535, when the Knights of St John introduced Carnival in Malta. This festival of fun and merry-making includes dancing competitions in elaborate costumes, band marches, decorated trucks and grotesque masks. Special features are "Il-Parata" (a sword dance commemorating Malta's defeat of the besieging Turks in 1565), "Il-Maltija" (Malta's national dance), and other dances by companies in costume from a number of countries.

May 16-18 - Carnival in Gozo is organized on the following weekend, and the winning entries of the Malta Carnival join Gozitan participants in another weekend of revelry on the sister Island.

June 21-25 - The International Air Rally of Malta draws participants from all over Europe and the United States. Competitions include Time Arrival and a Concours d'Elegance.

June 28-29 - "Mnarja" Folk Festival: This is an all-night traditional Maltese "festa" which originated in the Middle Ages to celebrate the end of the agricultural season. In fact this is mainly a folk festival of the agricultural community. It is celebrated through the night at the Buskett Gardens with a major agricultural exhibition, wine sampling, band marches, carts and cabs decorated on folk themes, and a show with folk singing as its highlight. The Maltese traditional dish, rabbit fried in wine, is served on the spot during the whole night. The festivities reach a climax with bareback horse and donkey races on the morrow, during the afternoon at Rabat.

July 18 - August 9 - MALTA FEST - the Maltese

International Arts Festival: This festival is a celebration of the Arts in historic surroundings. Top local and foreign talent of performing arts is presented at outdoor venues in major historic sites, like the dance spectacles at the megalithic temple of Ħaġar Qim, music, choir singing and drama at San Anton Gardens, art exhibitions in Valletta, classical music at the ancient capital Mdina and other art forms including popular modern music at Fort Tigné, Sliema.

September 7: The commemoration of the Two Sieges is held to celebrate the raising of two bitterly-fought sieges - that of 1565 and that of 1940-43. On this day, a centuries-old Regatta is held in the Grand Harbour, and it is one of the most popular of spectator sports.

September 12-14 - International Open Class Boardsailing Championship: A three-day racing programme made up of a long-distance race, a set of Olympic races and competitions is held in Mellieha Bay and in the Comino Channel. These Championships, now in their sixth year, are recognised as Malta's most important windsurfing championships, and a number of European surfers challenge the locals for the major honours.

October 4: International yachting - the famous Middle Sea Race is in the Annual Calendar of Yacht Races for yachts in Class A and Classes I to IV. This 1,000 km race takes the yachts from Malta around Lampedusa, Pantelleria, Sicily and back. It is organised by the Valletta Yacht Club with the assistance of the Royal Ocean Racing Club. The Middle Sea Race is the climax of a whole week of international yacht racing events in Malta.

November 12-30: Opera season at the Manoel Theatre in Valletta. Malta's national theatre is held to be the second oldest theatre still being used in Europe.

December 5-14: Festivities to celebrate Republic Day commemorating the promulgation of the Maltese Constitution which set up the Republic on the 13th December, 1974. National competitions for local talent (band music, choirs, ballet, dance) are organised, as well as an outdoor parade at which the President of the Republic takes the salute of the representatives of all sectors of the working population.

December 18-January 1: Christmas and the New Year are commemorated with special activities mainly in the capital Valletta. Competitions for decorative lighting of streets, shopping arcades and club facades draw participation from several business and social communities, while individuals from all over Malta and Gozo participate in the traditional competitions for the best Christmas cribs: small or large, mechanical or still. Most of these are kept open in homes, clubs and other institutions for visits by tourists and the general public.
