Air Malta takes-off with the Airbus A320

A new decade.
A new Europe. A new look for Air Malta.

A bold new livery to reflect the Europe of the nineties.

And not just a new look. A brand new aircraft, now that Air Malta has taken delivery of the world acclaimed Airbus A320 and inducted it into its fleet.

With seating for 174 and a turn-around time of one hour, the new A320 will play a major role in our dedication to developing ties with Europe.

As well as developing our routes.

Which is exactly how it should be for an airline that's always seen itself as a major player in the European Market.

And we've every intention of being an even bigger player and creating even stronger links with Europe in the 90's.

But the new look and new Airbus are only a part of it. Not everything's new. Some things we'll never change. Our service. And our welcome. That's a promise!

For further information about our schedules phone your

Principal Events in Malta and Gozo

April

03-07 Boat Fair at the Fair Grounds, Naxxar.

24-28 Motor Fair at the Fair Grounds, Naxxar.

May

01 Workers' Day - Feast of St Joseph the Worker - public holiday.

25 Wind Surfing : Malta-Sicily Windsurf Race.

June

07 Ramla Bay Regatta organised by the Valletta Yacht Club.

07 Sette Giugno - national holiday.

29 Feast of St Peter and St Paul - public holiday.

The feast is more popularly known as Mnarja. It is traditionally a harvest festival, the origins of which are lost in the midst of time. It is still held at Buskett, a wooded park not far from Mdina, Malta's medieval capital.

The festivities open on the eve, when open-air folk singing and folk music competitions are held at Buskett Gardens. Maltese dishes are served on the occasion, but fried rabbit is the order of the evening.

An agrarian show is held during the morning on the 29th June. Horse and donkey races, ridden bareback, are held in the afternoon near Mdina. The races bring the festivities to an end. Mnarja is derived from "Luminaria", meaning illumination, because in times gone by, the bastions around Mdina used to be illuminated by bonfires to mark the event.

July

1-15 International Fair of Malta, at the Fair Grounds, Naxxar.

July-September

National Waterpolo league matches are played at the Marsascala National Swimming Pool. Aquatic sports activities are held in the various waterpolo pitches dotting the coastline.

September

08 Victory Day - national holiday.

On this day Malta commemorates the lifting of two Sieges : in 1565 against the Turks and in 1943 against the Axis Powers. A characteristic event is the holding of the regatta, or boat-races, in the Grand Harbour.

21 Independence Day - national holiday

National celebrations marking the anniversary of the granting of Independence to Malta by Britain in 1964.

A WEIGHT OFF YOUR MIND...
AND A WAIT OFF YOUR MIND!

HELICOPTER SERVICES
MALTA - GOZO - MALTA

For further information
contact your travel agent or Air Malta direct

With its network of scheduled destinations, Air Malta has always been by far the quickest and most flexible way of moving cargo out of Malta. And now, with a freighter only service to Frankfurt, large consignments can now speed around the world at 500 miles an hour rather than 12 knots or 40 miles per hour.

That should take a substantial weight off your mind. Not to mention a real wait off your mind!

Contact your cargo agent or Air Malta direct today for further details.
