Braathens SAFE is proud to announce the opening of a new route between Oslo and Stockholm this autumn. We will be starting with six flights a day between the two cities, increasing the schedule to seven flights daily as of 6 January 1997. Together with our new partner Transwede Airways we also give our passengers access to an extensive domestic network in Sweden.

Braathens SAFE currently makes 300 departures daily, servicing 14 airports in Norway and 10 abroad.

Braathens' modern fleet consists of Boeing 737-400 and 737-500 aircraft. The airline has an excellent record of safety, efficiency and punctuality. A number of Braathens' ground stops are just 20 minutes long. This optimises resources, allowing the airline to keep airfares to a minimum.

Whether you're travelling for business or pleasure, flying has never been more popular or more efficient than it is today. Braathens' new Oslo-Stockholm route is just one more way of expressing how much we appreciate you and yours.
We look forward to serving you.

Bookingclasses

On board Braathens aircraft, there is only one service class. There is no division of the cabin, and the service is the same for all passengers on board the aircraft.
A number of seats are, however, kept for passengers with special- or discounted tickets. For statistical reasons, passengers holding such tickets must be booked in different classes.
When making reservations you may be informed that your class is fully booked. This does not necessarily mean the aircraft is full.
