MUSH... TO THE ARCTIC

THIS WINTER

Alaska Airlines' Arctic Winter Tour is the greatest winter adventure tour offered in America, and the only one of its kind. If you want to experience something new, to be one of the relatively few outsiders who have watched a mid-day dawn and mingled with the Eskimos as they go about their traditional ways of life, the Arctic in winter is the place to go. Until recently, you could not have done it quickly or in comfort, but Alaska Airlines now makes it possible.

Your two day adventure begins in Anchorage and takes you to Nome and Kotzebue. You'll ride a dog sled over the snow and pack ice and watch Eskimo hunting parties. You will learn how to 'jig for Tomcod'—fish, Eskimo style, through a hole in the ice. A rich historical tour is included to give you a taste of the gaudy past of Nome's Gold Rush days.

You'll witness the Eskimo blanket toss, marvel at the famed King Island Dancers and watch skilled craftsmen as they perform their ancient arts. You'll cross the Arctic Circle in Alaska Airlines' Golden Nugget 727 Jets and receive a personalized certificate.

During the entire adventure, you are snug and warm in a colorful parka and footwear furnished by Alaska Airlines especially for the tour.

Your warm, friendly hotel accommodations, newest and finest in the Arctic, and the personal attention of our guides, will delight you.

All these add up to a winter excursion that is unique and rewarding. A 2-day trip that you will long remember.

Arctic Winter Tours depart daily from Anchorage. Special Winter fares: $129.00 for adults and $79.00 for children. Includes round-trip air transportation, hotel accommodations, guide service, and all sightseeing features.

For details and reservations, see your travel agent or call Alaska Airlines.
