TEXAS' GREAT CENTENNIAL CALLS YOU SOUTH!

Don't fail to see this portrayal of the glorious and romantic history of Texas told in song, story, play, pageant and exhibit BRANIFF AIRWAYS brings this All-Texas playground within a few hours of your home.

DALLAS

Offers the Texas Centennial Central Celebration surpassing in splendor all the great International Fairs which preceded it. Fascinating industrial and scientific exhibits are sandwiched between fun in the "Streets of Paris," "The Street of All Nations," etc.

FORT WORTH

Transplanted Billy Rose's great show, "Jumbo," direct and unchanged from New York. Sally Rand's "Nudist Ranch," "Casa Manana," an outdoor restaurant with the world's largest revolving stage, 500 beautiful chorines and Paul Whiteman's orchestra; "The Last Frontier," staged in a huge "Canyon Theatre"; and many other new and novel features invite you.

SAN ANTONIO

The home of the Alamo, shrine of Texas' liberty. Seventeenth Century Spanish missions line the roads to Uncle Sam's three great air training centers, the cradle of the Army Air Corps. A visit to Texas which does not include this historic site of earliest Texas history is not complete.

HOUSTON-GALVESTON

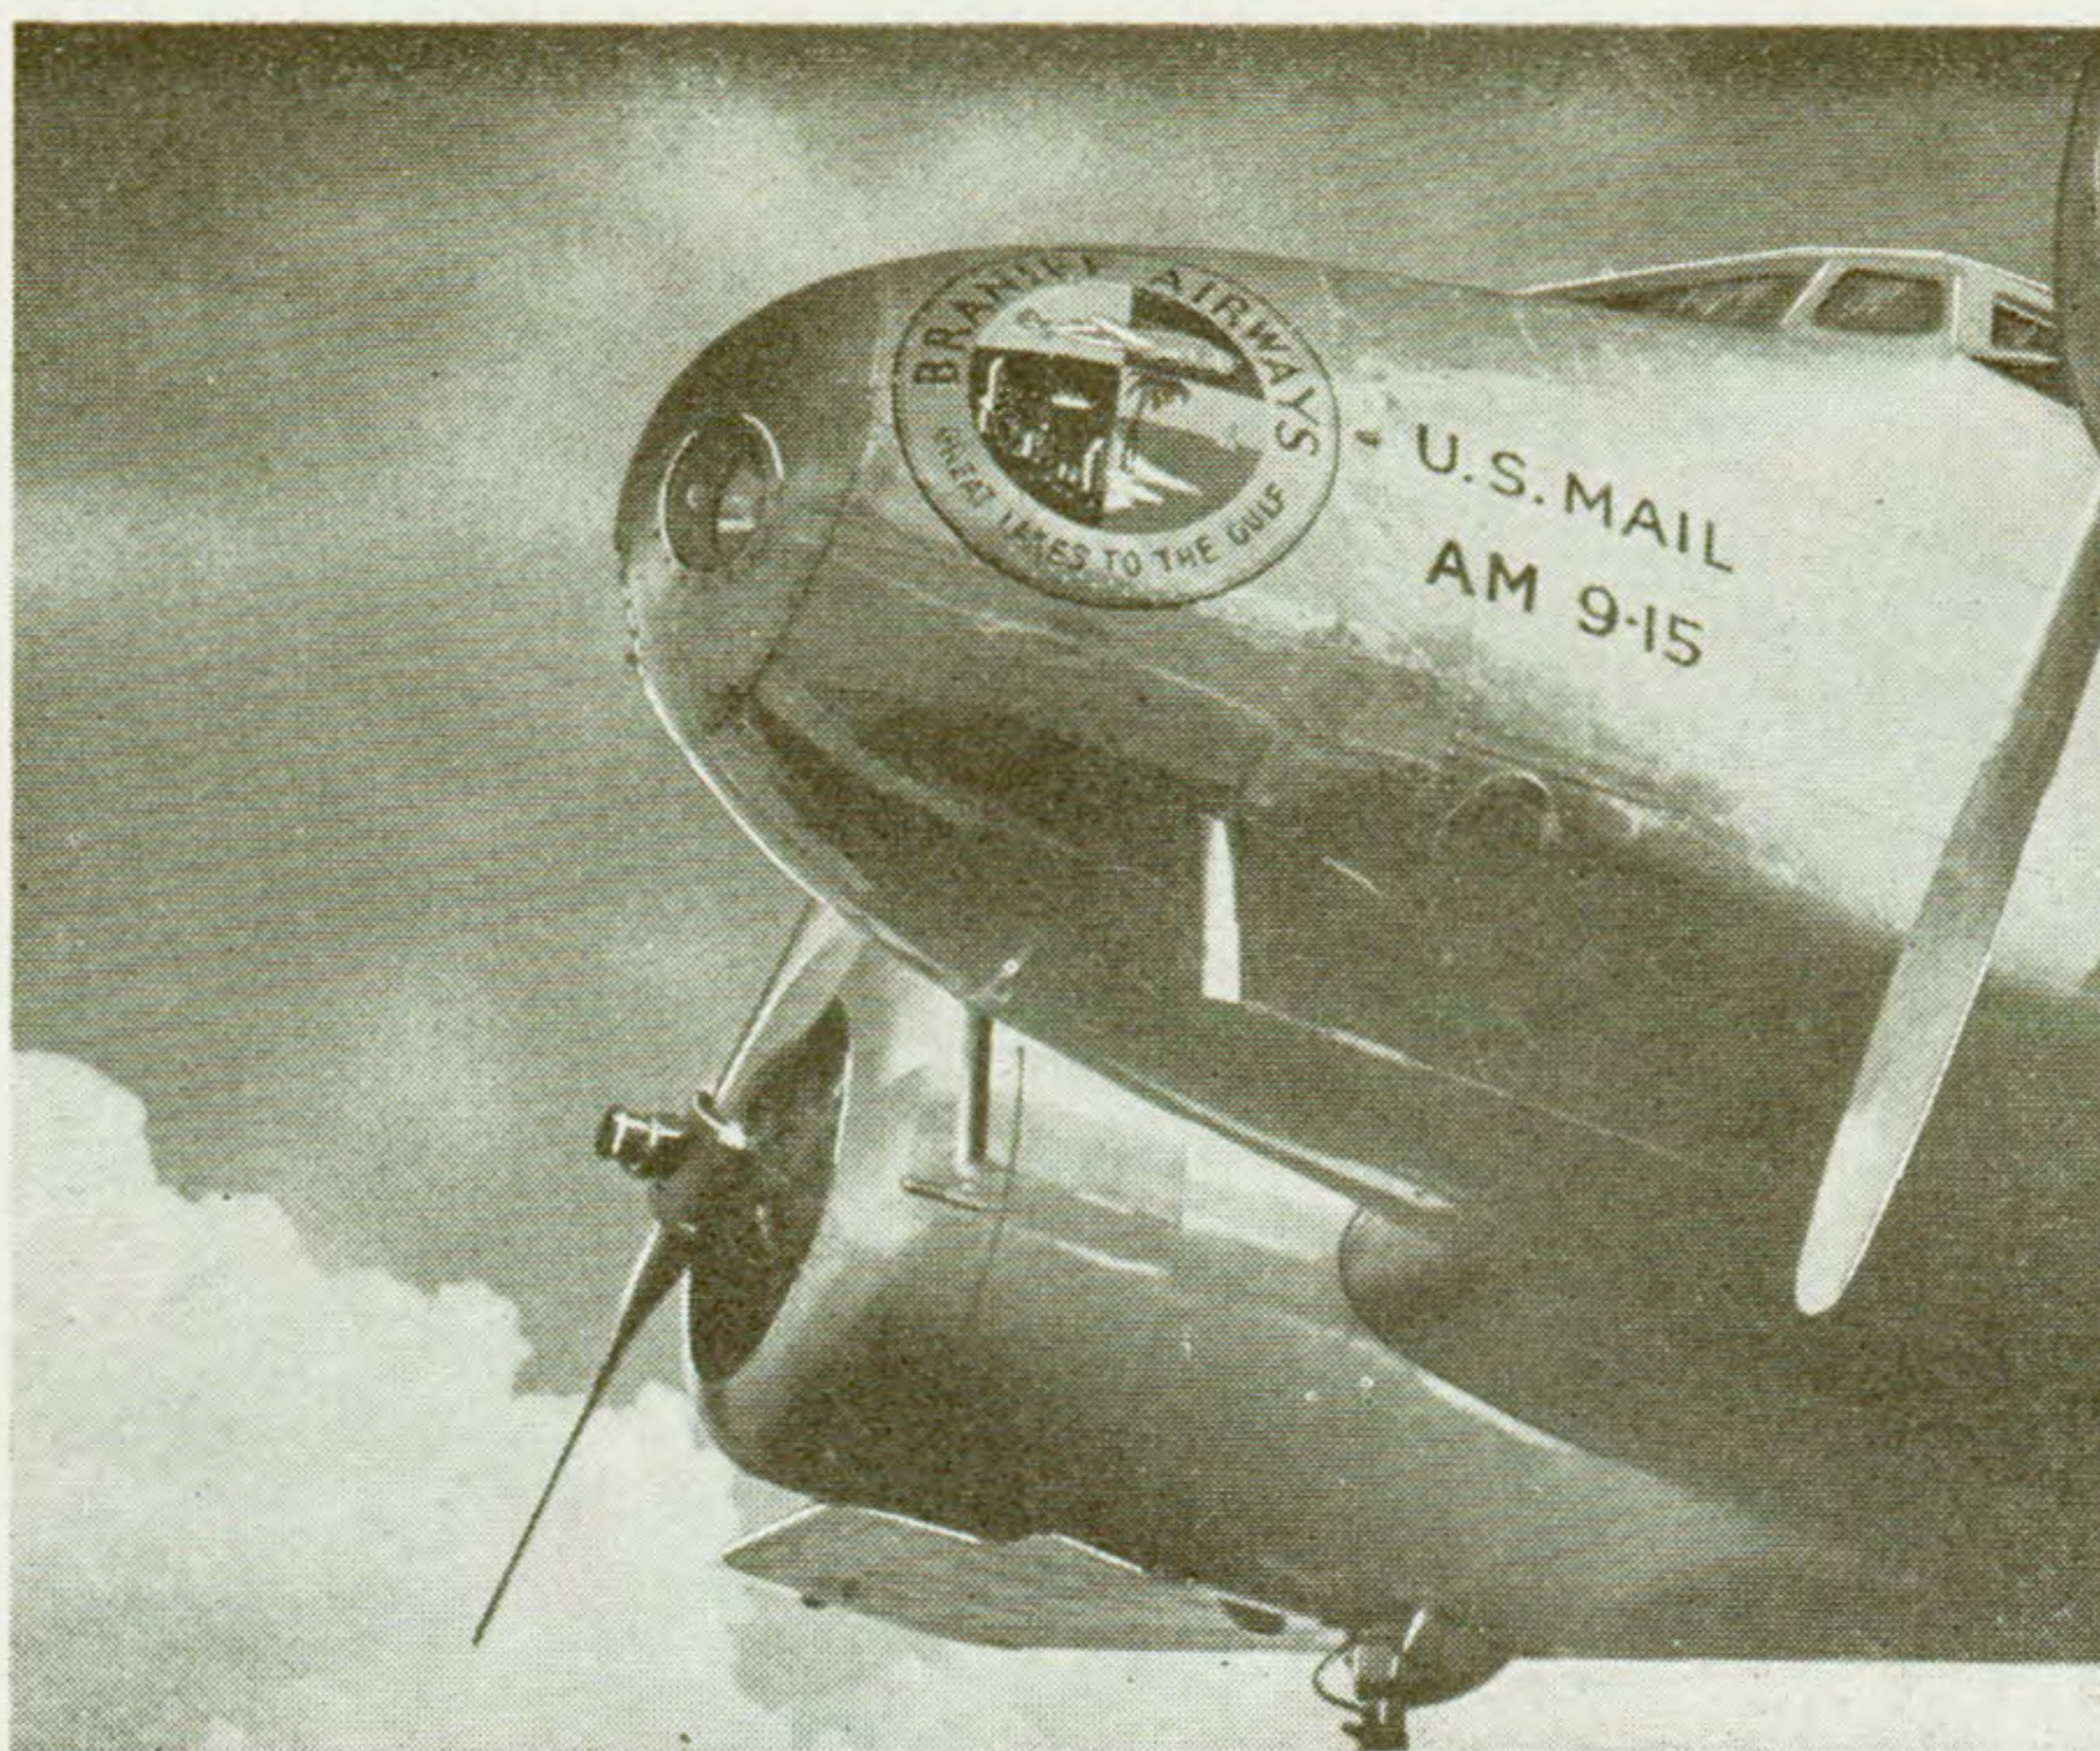

This man-made metropolis 50 miles from the Gulf—yet ringed with docks and steamships from every port in the world is the locale of San Jacinto Battlefield where Sam Houston wrested Texas from Mexican peonage. Only a short distance away is Galveston with its miles of white sand beaches, laved by the cool waters of the Gulf, the Mecca of thousands of vacationists.

CORPUS CHRISTI-BROWNSVILLE

Two centuries ago the Spanish Grandees vacationed in the semi-tropical luxury of these now thriving cities. Today American sportsmen still find this section of the gulf coast a paradise for fishing and hunting. Fighting silver tarpon and timid deer abound more thickly than in any other section of the United States.

MEXICO CITY

The picturesque wind-up of a perfect Texas vacation is found in beautiful Mexico City. Cool nights and pleasant sun-sprayed days invite you to wander in its age-old streets and visit its modern museums, theatres and bull rings. Only a few hours south—all-expense air tours to Mexico City are complete and inexpensive.

BRANIFF

is the multi-motored airline between Chicago and Texas!!
