T. E. BRANIFF, President, Braniff International Airways, celebrating its 24th year of air progress this month.

it's a far cry...

from a four-passenger Stinson to a fleet of giant DC-6s.
It's a far cry from a 116-mile route between Tulsa and Oklahoma City to a vast international system—serving the United States, Cuba, Panama, Ecuador, Peru, Brazil, Bolivia, Paraguay and Argentina.
It's a far cry from the first 3-man staff to Braniff's present carefully-trained 3,000. Now marking 24 years of the finest in air service, Braniff's flown over two billion passenger miles in complete safety. An enviable record and Braniff's still going strong. In fact, keep your eyes and ears on the world's airways and you'll be hearing more and more
