NEW ORLEANS—SPIRIT OF MARDI GRAS

Alive with the romance and color of old French Louisiana, is the Mardi Gras festival in New Orleans—one of the many attractions that draw the World of Sport and Fashion to this city throughout the year.

CHICAGO AND SOUTHERN AIR LINES

BOTH North and South, CHICAGO AND SOUTHERN AIR LINES offers you security and speed in transportation, with a widening of your personal and business horizons. The advantages to the air traveler of the Valley Level Route need no comment. From the Lakes to the Gulf this route follows a natural channel of commerce, famous historically for its open and friendly terrain. Connecting the industrial and distributing areas of Illinois and Missouri with the Cotton, Timber and Sugar country of the deep South, it is the main artery of an Inland Empire unrivalled in its diversification of climate and enterprise.

In its operations, CHICAGO AND SOUTHERN AIR LINES continues the policies developed through long experience on the Pacific Coast. Flying at all times under the strict supervision of its own Technical Experts and of the Department of Commerce, the Company has put multi-motored planes on the New Orleans-Memphis run and this service will be extended to Chicago in February. All ships on all schedules are equipped with the most advanced aids to air navigation—including radio. Weather Observers are situated at each stopping point along the route and at frequent intermediate stations. Only men of established character, noted for their conservative judgment and with many thousands of hours in the air have been chosen as Pilots. Throughout its organization CHICAGO AND SOUTHERN maintains the same standards of dependable and efficient service for which it was formerly noted under the name of Pacific Seaboard.
