Just as easily as you would pick up your phone and talk to a friend or neighbor, these pilots use the latest type two-way radiophones to converse back and forth with ground stations. They are in constant touch with ground crews and other planes miles away. All weather details for miles ahead of the flights are exchanged by radiophone between the pilots and the ground stations.

Ladies first. Every day is ladies' day aboard Pennsylvania-Central Airlines. Women find every detail of PCA service an item of travel perfection. Pilots and ground personnel are highly trained in providing all the little courtesies and extra services that make flying the most desirable mode of travel. Plan now to fly Pennsylvania-Central Airlines on that next trip to Washington, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Detroit, Grand Rapids and other cities on the PCA route.
