HERE'S HOW COLONIAL'S
FAMILY
PLAN WORKS!

Q. Who is included in a family group?

A. Your family group can include either or both parents, plus all children under 22. There is no limit on the number of children. One child under 2 years of age will be carried free.

Q. What do tickets cost under Colonial's Family Plan?

A. One parent must pay full fare; the other parent and all the children each pay only 1/2 fare.

Q. On what days must I travel, to get the benefits of Colonial's Family Plan?

A. The trip must begin on a Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday.

Q. Does the family travel together?

A. The family must leave as a single group, and must travel as a group, at least to the first scheduled stop.

Q. Is this plan effective on the entire Colonial System?

A. It is effective on all Colonial flights excepting those to Bermuda.

Q. May our family group split up, or make a stop-over en route?

A. On a trip completely within the Colonial domestic system, the family group may split up at any point, or may stop-over and then continue the trip, so long as all travel is done on Monday, Tuesday, or Wednesday. For example: you may leave from New York for Montreal on Monday, stop-over at Burlington until Wednesday, and then continue on to Montreal, all at the Family Plan rates.

Q. Does Colonial's Family Plan apply when I continue my trip on a connecting airline?

A. You can begin on Colonial on any of the Family Plan days, and continue, at Family Plan rates, on the next scheduled connecting flight, via any scheduled airline, so long as the entire trip is booked from the point of origin. For example: you can fly from Montreal to N. Y. via Colonial, then continue from N. Y. to Los Angeles via American Airlines, all on the Family Plan, if the entire trip is booked in advance in Montreal.
