MORE SEATS TO SERVE YOU

Colonial has served thousands of additional passengers in and out of New York this past summer by flying extra sections when regular trips were sold out. The new schedules shown in this timetable permit a continuation of this policy out of New York—PLUS a spare plane at Washington to handle extra sections in the Washington-Scranton-Syracuse area.

For example, a Binghamton passenger wants a seat to Washington yet the trip is sold out for the portion between Allentown and Washington. In the past we could only say, "SORRY THAT TRIP IS SOLD OUT BUT WE HAVE SPACE ON A LATER TRIP." Now we have a chance to fly a second plane between Allentown or Scranton and Washington, doubling the number of passengers that can be carried between those points — AND multiplying the seats available for the sale out of Binghamton or Syracuse.

This extra flight to take care of overflow requests on a regular trip has to be arranged in advance, and the spare plane can only be in one place at a time, but it will fly thousands of passengers who would otherwise be told, "SORRY BUT THAT TRIP IS SOLD OUT."
