A New Flight

On February 15th CONTINENTAL inaugurates a second flight between Denver and Albuquerque. This doubles the service and permits much better connections. Both north and southbound business travelers can leave early in the morning and return that evening.

The most important change is our new Denver to Dallas service, a saving of 14 hours. Service is restored to Big Spring, Abilene, and Little Rock. Better connections with American Airlines at El Paso make these changes possible.

Connections with United Airlines at Denver have been greatly improved also. Passengers from Salt Lake and the entire northwest now make much faster time to Pueblo, Santa Fe, El Paso, and Dallas. Return service is straight through with our new Flight 4 from Albuquerque north.

Wives Free!

Seriously, we are making married men this proposition: Buy a one-way or round-trip ticket between Denver and Santa Fe or Albuquerque and your wife can RIDE FREE as the guest of CONTINENTAL. After one flight she will be an air booster—to your profit and ours. Hence our "Educational Offer."

Offer is good until March 14th. Some good combination values are also available. For example, the offer applies between Denver and Los Angeles for San Francisco until March 1st. The net cost per person is unbelievably low, but the idea has already made several thousand new converts for air travel.

Please make reservations in advance as only 60% of the seats on any one flight will be allotted to "Husbands and Wives."

Rail Costs

Please check the Reduced Fares shown below with your regular traveling costs. Many found air travel economical at the higher fares of last year—but anyone accustomed to using a lower berth can actually save money by flying with CONTINENTAL.

Flying saves about 80% of your travel time—yet costs no more. Plan to fly on your next trip, business or pleasure. Only actual experience in the newest planes can make you realize why the regular air traveler is dissatisfied with any other means of transportation.
