LOOK WHERE WE GO!

SAN JUAN

Spain in the Caribbean. A city of grandiose historical buildings. Gleaming hotels, laughter-filled streets — and the exciting click of dice in the casinos. Intriguing, exotic food from all over. Frenzied entertainment. Dig your toes in the sand. Or pad through the shopping wonderland of Old San Juan. Magic.

ST. THOMAS

Where else can you buy the merchandise of nine continents — at 'way below U.S. prices? And what cruise director would fail to stop his ship here? Magnificent shopping, fine restaurants, charter fishing fleets, white beaches. And if you're going back to the States, you will pick up your ONE-GALLON liquor quota here, of course. The prices are on-the-rocks bottom.

ST. CROIX

Just a hop from St. Thomas. Once a planter's island; Great Houses still stand majestically on the hills. The island bustles, too, for shoppers; the stores are tucked away in alleys. (And low prices, like St. Thomas.) Great sailing. If you haven't followed the underwater trail at Buck Island, you haven't lived and dived.

PONCE

The madonna of the south coast, the island's second largest city. Magnificent display of paintings covering 500 years at new Museum of Art. Photograph the world's most colorful firehouse — it's vivid red and black. Ride a horse coach through narrow streets. Visit the Don Q rum distillery. Aaaaah!

MAYAGUEZ

A booming town on the western coastal plain. There's a Tropical Marine Science Center with scientific and industrial research labs. And an experimental station with an overwhelming collection of tropical plants. Also two distilleries and a brewery in case this much research gives you a thirst.
