JUNEAU

Alaska's Capitol is nestled at the foot of Mt. Juneau in Gastineau Channel. A.C.A.'s offices and hangars are situated in the heart of town three blocks from the farthest hotel.

SITKA

Only forty minutes from Juneau by air, is served on daily schedules by A.C.A. Now principally a fishing center, historic Sitka was the Capitol of Alaska when Alaska belonged to Russia.

WINGING OVER THE ICE CAP

In back of Juneau, only mountain peaks extend above the gigantic sea of ice from which emanate Twin, Taku, Mendenhall, and Norris Glaciers. With no wing obstructing his vision the Alaska traveler can watch in comfort as rugged enchanting Alaska unfolds before his eyes.

Courteous, efficient, uniformed personnel are at your service to make every trip a pleasure.
