All Weather 24 hours a day service.

Why charter?... because your time and talent are priceless assets. Don't waste them by forcing important productive hours into a schedule to fit mass transit requirements. Let Astec be your personal airline.

Traveling by charter eliminates crowded highways and parking lots, long check-in lines, security screening, lost baggage, delayed departures, missed connections, long layovers, automobile rides from central city airports to suburban business meetings.

Flying by your timetable, not someone else's, serving the thousands of airports and cities not serviced by the airlines Astec offers you complete flexibility.

You come and go as you please 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. Should you need more time at a particular appointment, you simply take it. If a last minute destination change is required, it's no problem.
