BIRMINGHAM

... uniquely situated in the only region in the world where all the essential ingredients of steel (coal, iron ore, and limestone) are found together in commercial quantities. From these, and other bountiful gifts of Nature, an aggressive citizenry has built a truly great industrial city, well-balanced with diversified commerce. From Birmingham's modern airport, DELTA is one of three major airlines providing daily departures to the nation's principal cities—contributing that element of speed so vital in today's "Battle of Production."
