DIRECT Agency Representation of Eastern Air Transport for all information and reservations:

EASTERN Air Transport has flown the U. S. Air Mail to New York for the past three years. Only two air transport companies in the world fly more miles per day than E.A.T. This company's system embraces 2,100 miles of airways, and its daily schedules total over 10,000 miles of flying. Forty-two pilots employed by Eastern Air Transport have had longer than six years of average experience each, and their combined flying aggregates nearly 14,000,000 miles. Eastern Air Transport is a highly trained, experienced, responsible organization, offering a dependable service to the public.

THOMAS B. DOE, President

RESERVATIONS via Eastern Air Transport may be made through Postal Telegraph System from any point and without additional cost. Simply ask Postal Telegraph to secure your reservation and that Company will look after all the details.

"E. A. T." Means De Luxe Air Travel

CURTISS Condor planes of Eastern Air Transport in service between New York and Richmond accommodate 18 passengers and a crew of 3, including hostess. These swift and comfortable club-type, multi-motored airliners, with their separate smoking compartments, are the largest ships operated in this section. All equipment of Eastern Air Transport embodies the highest perfection of design, engineering, construction and dependable flying efficiency.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Rates for Children

Children in arms under 2 years of age will be carried without charge. All others at regular fare.

Baggage

Thirty pounds baggage per passenger is carried free. Excess baggage, if plane load allows, will be charged for at a scale of rates amounting to approximately one-half of 1 per cent of the fare paid for each pound overweight.

Animals

No animals may be transported in passenger planes.

Reservations and Interline Tickets

Representatives of Eastern Air Transport will provide through tickets and reservations to all points reached by Eastern Air Transport lines, Colonial Air Transport, and Southern Transcontinental. Reservations may also be obtained through leading hotels, travel bureaus, and Postal Telegraph offices everywhere. Details of numerous time-saving plane and train combinations will be given on request.

Do Not Delay Making Reservation

To make sure of securing your reservation via Eastern Air Transport, request should be made two or three days or longer in advance, if possible. Every effort will be made, however, to take care of applications up to the time of departure.

E. A. T. Air Mail Services

The majority of the passenger planes of Eastern Air Transport carry U. S. Air Mail. Night flying with air mail exclusively is carried on by a fleet of swift ships built especially for that service, and a notable record of efficiency has been established in this field of air transport.
