At Mesa Air Group, we think our schedule should match yours. Not the other way around.

That's why our regional airlines offer several departure times each day from most of the smaller towns we service - towns that other airlines don't reach. Like Laramie, Wyoming. Latrobe, Pennsylvania. Hays, Kansas.

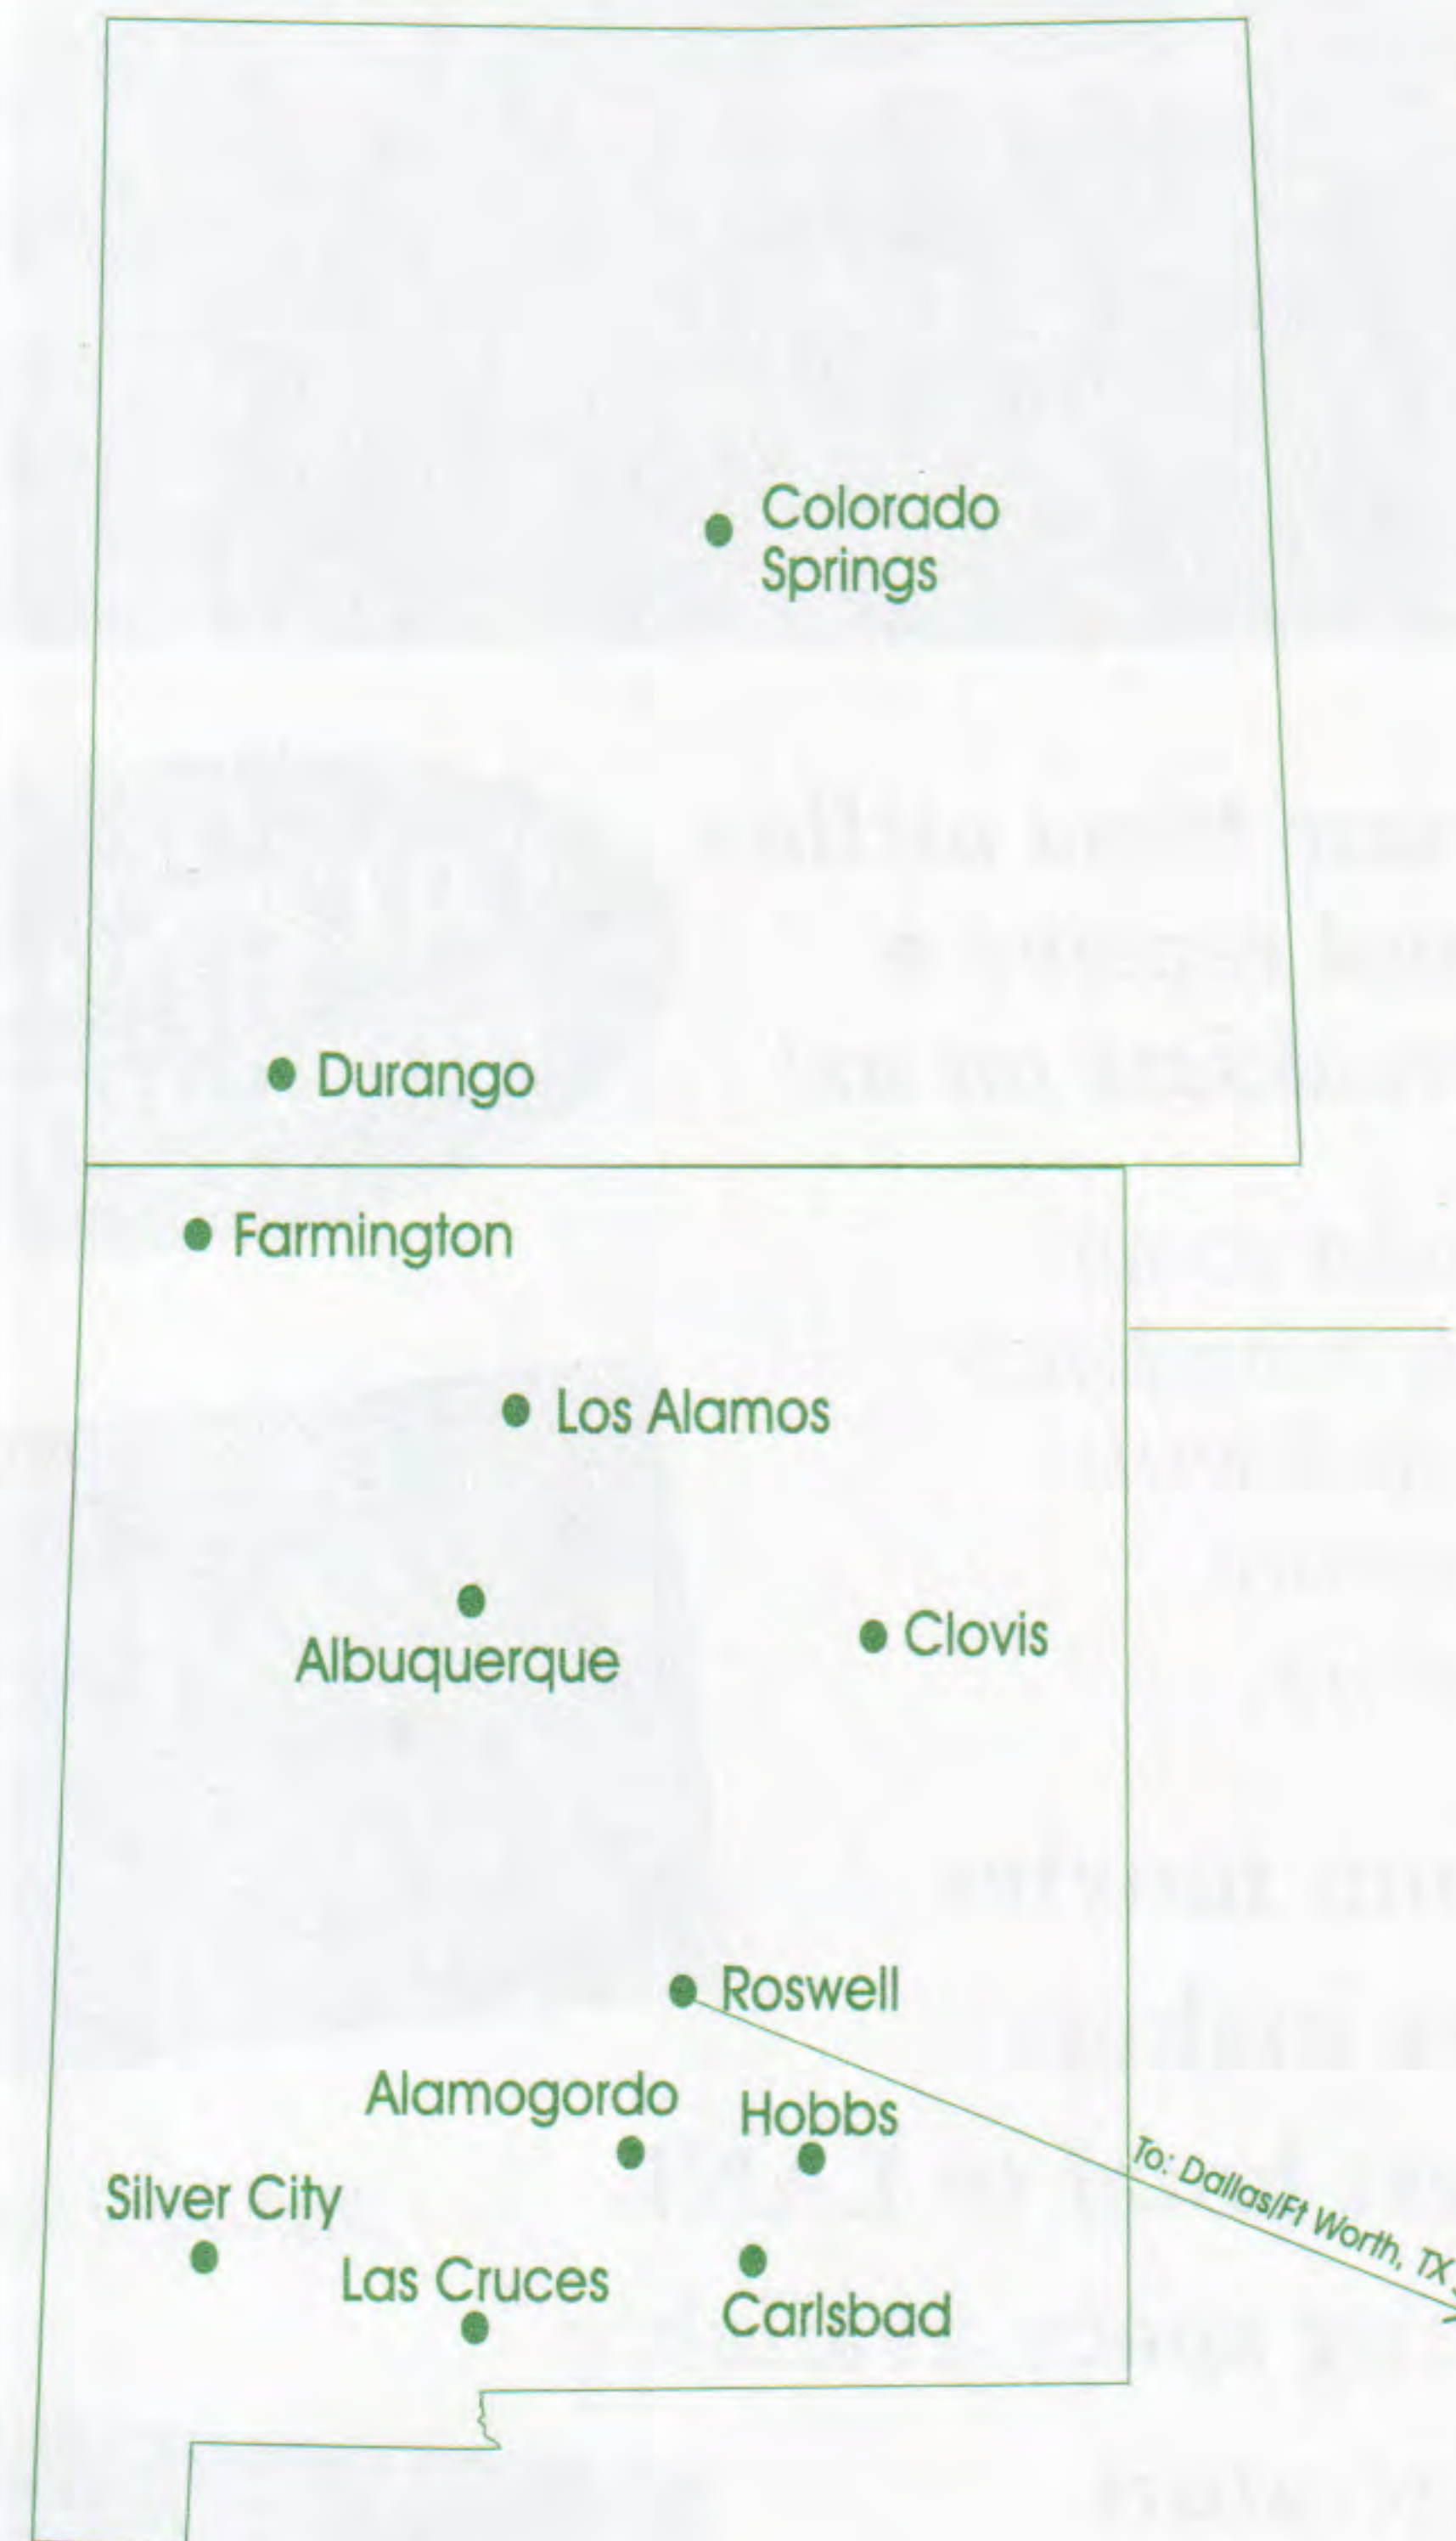

Every day, we give people the option to fly rather than drive when heading to or from small communities all over the country. That makes life easier - and travel faster. What's more, our flights connect you to the major hubs.

So the next time you're traveling to or from Gallup, New Mexico, Visalia, California or even Presque Isle, Maine, talk to us. You'll find we're quite a departure from other airlines.
