This narrated tour discloses the facets of the Emerald City's personality. The Kingdome centered in the International District. Exclusive homes along the winding shores of Lake Washington and tiny houseboats on Lake Union. The University of Washington with its eclectic mix of neo-Gothic, traditional and Northwest architecture. The salmon ladders and underwater viewing windows of the Locks, which provide passage between Puget Sound and the city's fresh water lakes. Magnolia Bluff looking out across Puget Sound to the Olympic Mountains. And, of course, Seattle's bustling waterfront, where ferries, tugs, pleasure boats and steamships thread their way between Seattle's business district, the islands of the Sound and foreign ports. This tour is a must for all Pacific Northwest visitors. Free pick-up service for tours from downtown hotels.
