FLIGHT SCHEDULE AND FARE SUMMARY Effective July 15, 1982

Service To:
Dallas
Houston
Midland/Odessa
Tulsa

July 15, 1982

Dear Muse Air Passenger:

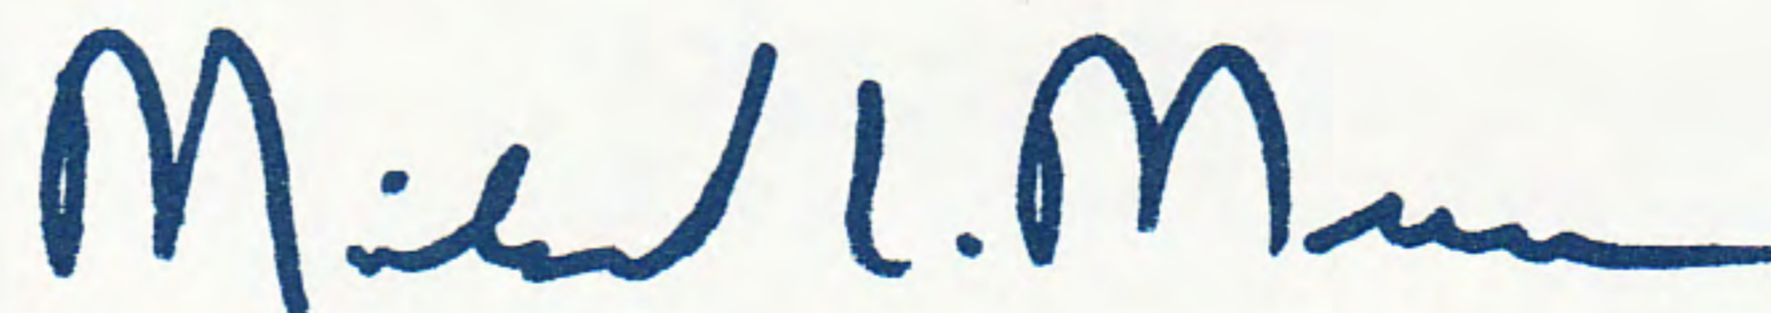

The flight schedule we published on May 16, 1982 disclosed our planned inauguration of service to Austin and San Antonio, Texas. At the time we published our proposed schedule of six well-timed roundtrips between Dallas/Love Field and Austin and seven roundtrips between Dallas/Love Field and San Antonio, we felt confident that the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) would take the necessary steps (in the aftermath of the Braniff bankruptcy) to amend its slot allocation procedures so as to provide us with the necessary slots to replace the competitive service to Dallas which Braniff once offered in these markets.

Unfortunately, the FAA has not taken timely action to amend its slot allocation procedures and up until now we have been unsuccessful in obtaining the necessary landing rights to commence our proposed Austin and San Antonio service with the two new Super 80 aircraft we are scheduled to take delivery of this month. Consequently, we are forced to delete Austin and San Antonio from this flight schedule.

We pledge to each of you that we will continue our diligent efforts to obtain from the FAA the necessary landing rights to commence this new service as soon as possible. We will also continue our efforts to obtain landing rights in other new markets which have yet to experience the beautiful service offered only by Muse Air.

Thank you for your support and confidence and we hope you will continue to favor us with your business whenever your travel demands take you to Dallas, Houston, Midland/Odessa, and Tulsa or any other new cities we will serve in the future.

Yours very truly,

Michael L. Muse
President

NOTE: Due to Federal Aviation Administration airspace restrictions implemented as a result of the illegal PATCO strike in August, 1981, all flights are subject to FAA approval and certain flights may not operate on a daily basis or may be delayed in departure because of weather or other air traffic delays.
