Welcome to Zimbabwe, Africa's paradise.

Customs Concession

Your personal possessions not intended for disposal or consumption in Zimbabwe are duty-free. In addition, other consumable goods that are not imported for trade purposes may be imported up to a value of Z$1 000.00 per person. Alcoholic beverages may be included within this limit by persons over the age of 18 years, subject to a limit per person of five litres, of which, not more than two litres may be spirits. Members of a family travelling together may aggregate their allowances.

Entry Formalities

If you are not staying for longer than six months, you enter Zimbabwe with a minimum of formalities. All you need is a valid passport, a return ticket to your country (or enough money to buy one) and sufficient funds to cover your stay in Zimbabwe.

Currency

You may bring up to Z$500.00 and any amount of foreign currency in bank notes but the total amount must be declared to Customs on entry so that you may re-export it. Zimbabwe Dollars to the maximum equivalent of US200.00 only may be exported at the end of your holiday. Zimbabwe's unit of currency is the dollar, worth 100 cents.

Bank Hours

Banks in Zimbabwe are open for business during the following hours:

Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday:

08h00 - 15h00

Wednesday: 08h00 - 13h00

Saturday: 08h00 - 11h30

Driving in Zimbabwe

International driving permits and valid driving licenses issued in Zambia, Malawi, South Africa, Namibia, Botswana and Swaziland are valid for Zimbabwe. A visitor from any other country may, for 90 days or more (depending on the country of issue), use a valid driving license issued by a competent authority in that country. If not printed in English, it should have a certificate of authority and validity, or a translation of the text with the bearer's photograph attached.

Airport Departure Tax

All visitors will be required to pay the equivalent of US$20 when leaving the country by air. The revenue stamp can be bought at the airport or any commercial bank.
